

9. Any Other Business

9.1 Thorganby and West Cottingwith Charities

The clerk advised correspondence had been received advising that the Parish Councils current nomination of Councillor Dudley-Smith expired on the 31 October 2007 and the Charity required a decision regarding a further nomination to continue on the board. Councillor Martin proposed that Councillor Dudley-Smith continue representing the Parish Council on the board. This was seconded by Councillor Garnham. The proposal was passed unanimously.. The clerk was asked to write to Mr Burgess advising of the nomination.

9.2 Correspondence Folder

The clerk advised that the correspondence folder was ready to be circulated. Cllr Martin advised he would formulate a distribution list and forward to the clerk.

9.3 Holidays and Leave

It was noted that the clerk would be out of the country from the end of January until late February and would be advising the Planning Committee of the need for extensions should any applications be made during that period. Further it was noted the Cllrs Clegg, Dudley-Smith and Martin would be on holiday during this period.

Meeting closed at 8:55pm.
